

MOVING-OUT

Prior to moving out you must inform us of your intended move-out time and date. A member of the team will meet you at the property to collect your keys, carry out final inventory and check over the property for cleanliness and any potential damage caused. At this point, a discussion will occur between landlord / agent and the tenant regarding any deposit deductions which may need to be made.